

F3 Law

Associate Attorney – Business

F3 Law provides legal support to the public schools that serve our children and communities. We have an opening for a Business attorney in our Los Angeles office who would like to help k-12 schools and community colleges navigate the broad range of operational, legal issues they encounter.

The incumbent would provide transactional and litigation support on a broad range of substantive legal issues. Examples include real estate transactions, leases, public contracting matters, construction procurement, disputes, and a wide range of contract negotiations.

We offer a positive, collegial, and intellectually stimulating work environment and competitive compensation.
